GOOD NEWS FOR ARTS EDUCATIONAL SCHOOLS LONDON

Press information STRICTLY EMBARGOED until: 0800hrs on Wednesday 23 February 2011.

Today ARTS EDUCATIONAL SCHOOLS LONDON received an excellent report from the INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS INSPECTORATE (ISI).

Principal Jane Harrison says: %am delighted that the Headteacher and all the School Staff have had their excellent teaching recognised in this Inspection Report. It just confirms what we staff already know, that ArtsEd really is a unique environment for young people to learn and thrive+

ARTS EDUCATIONAL SCHOOLS LONDON is a small, world renowned specialist co-educational secondary performing arts school based in Chiswick London, providing a full academic and vocational training. ISI reports that the school provides each pupil a balanced academic, vocational, cultural and social curriculum to the highest standard.

Highlights taken directly from the ISI report include:

- Outstanding progress . such successful achievement is supported by the pupils good attitudes to learning and their exemplary behaviour
- Teaching is excellent . the teaching is a principal factor in the high levels of the pupils achievement at all levels
- An outstanding vocational curriculum whilst pursuing a good academic curriculum
- Pupils excel in the performing arts and achieve good academic results
- Teachers have a flair and enthusiasm which is infectious and inspires endeavour and interest among the pupils
- Pupils enjoy school immensely . they have positive attitudes to their work, their teachers, and each other which contribute to their academic and vocational achievement
- The personal development of pupils is excellent
- The school is led and managed outstandingly well which is having a direct and immediate impact on the pupils learning
- Creative work in the arts is excellent
- Outstanding standards are attained in externally assessed and graded examinations in dance, drama and musical theatre
- The sixth-form curriculum provides pupils with an inspiring and challenging education
- The personal development of all pupils is excellent

The GCSE and A-level results have continued to improve year on year, and results are above the national average - to see the most recent results please see the school website: www.artsed.co.uk.

Headteacher, Greg Beavis says: %am thrilled that the ISI have recognised all the aspects of the school that we believed were so strong. The inspectors noticed that our students experience a curriculum that is not only challenging but hugely enjoyable, studying the more traditional subjects as well as significant content from the performing and creative arts. They also acknowledged our excellent standards in teaching and the attention and care we place on student welfare and happiness. I feel all these factors combine to make ArtsEd the incredibly special school that it is+

.....over.....

ARTS EDUCATIONAL SCHOOLS LONDON is delighted that the school been seen in such a positive light by ISI and look forward to delivering the one action point suggested by them: to increase the number of washbasins at the school.
